

CREATIVE WRITING RULES

1. Closing Date for all entries: 23rd April 2010.
2. Please DO NOT include your name, address or other contact details on your work. When your work is received your details will be taken from your entry form and a reference number attached to your work. This is designed to preserve your anonymity where you may be known to the adjudicator.
3. Entries must be sent in with a stamped addressed envelope, (s.a.e.) if you wish to have the work returned.
4. All Entries must be the original work of the candidate, and not copied or transcribed from any other source.
5. Manuscripts and Compositions must be entirely the work of the candidate. No external help is allowed.
6. All Entries must be freshly-designed and must not have been submitted for any previous Wootton Bassett Competition.
7. In classes C16, C17 and C18 (journalism) all entries in must state the type of publication the piece has be written for with the intended audience briefly described
8. Please refer to General Rules regarding Trophies and their Return.
9. Candidates may be invited to read their selection(s) aloud on the Adjudication Day.
10. Entries may be published on the website, offered to the Press for publication and displayed at the Wootton Bassett Library. If entrants would prefer this NOT to happen please indicate when submitting your entry.
11. Winning entries can be published on the website without displaying the name of the candidate. Please indicate to the presiding STEWARD when the ADJUDICATOR'S decision is announced.