Teaching from Cardiff University and has had many of her poems published including in the local poetry publication, Pulsar Poetry. Sue, who has extensive experience facilitating creative writing workshops, will explore the inspirations for poetry based on the subjects featured in the poetry classes of the festival.

These classes will take place during the afternoon and evening of Wednesday 7 April, with each aimed at a different age group; 7-11 years (2.15pm – 3.15pm), 12-14 years (4.00pm – 5.00pm) and 15 years through to adults (6.15pm – 7.15pm).

Speech and Drama

The speech & drama classes are planned for Friday 9 April and will be run by drama teacher Sandra McDowell. Mrs. McDowell LGSM, ALAM, has been teaching Speech and Drama to pupils of all ages for nearly 30 years, and for the past 8 has been an examiner for the London Academy of Music and Dramatic Art (LAMDA). The drama classes will include group work, and will work on acting, mime and reading of
