Pam Wedgwood

Teaching tips & Masterclass

Aimed at covering Piano and Instrumental works

Pam Wedgwood studied French Horn, Cello, Piano and Composition at the Trinity College of Music London. After graduating, she began a career as a professional horn player before taking up an appointment as a peripatetic instrumental music teacher in Surrey in the late 1970s. Pam began her long association with Faber Music in 1988 with the highly-acclaimed series Jazzin' About, followed by the Up-Grade! series and the adult piano method It's Never Too Late to Play Piano. She is recognised around the world as one of the UK's most prolific and successful composers of popular repertoire for young instrumentalists. Pam now concentrates on composing and workshops.
